CAFOD Live Simply Initiative. Maria Pizzoni presented the actions; -

Maria shared that Live Simply meetings had been held via zoom during the lockdown and Pope Francis’s encyclical letter “Laudato Si”, on care for our common home, had been read and discussed over 6 weeks.

Season of Creation with reference to St Francis of Assis was highlighted by a special Mass, bidding prayers and a calendar with reflections for each day, these were all very well received. Also, parishioners participated as individuals with gardening and litter picking during this time.

All parishioners are invited to attend the next planned meeting where discussions will be held regarding David Attenborough’s - witness statement on biodiversity, next meeting 23.11.20.

The God who Speaks: Sally mentioned that the “God who speaks” will be holding a zoom meeting through artwork. Fr. Charles Ramsey will participate on the discussion on 06.12.20 at 14.30. Posters to be finalised regarding the zoom meeting and added to Facebook and WhatsApp.

The Presbytery in Llangollen belongs to the parish. Discussions are ongoing about the best way to use it for the benefit of the Parish.

Denbighshire council could use it for a monthly rent. Another option could be Air B&B to run for 1 year. The last option is to have a family within the parish to use it as a short-term accommodation. The proximity to the church may be a problem.

Holy Cross Church, Llangollen needs painting. The estimate is £1,685. The Finance committee may ask the Parishioners to donate something towards the project.

Same Sex Union: Fr Anthony sent out a clarification from the Pope Francis on the issue of same sex unions.

The Funeral of Maureen Jones will be on Friday. All those who wish to attend the funeral should register with Fr Anthony.

GPDR: All information meant for the consumption of the Parishioners must be sent through the Parish Office.

AOB – none

Closing Prayer – Fr Anthony

Date of next meeting to be decided.
